

Metáfora bilingüe

*My own bilingualism
Is a double helix.*

A strand of English y otra de español.

Connected by all the understandings and practices that

Exist. Existen

*En los espacios intermedios, entre medios y ocurren
“in-between.”*

My languages and literacies languagings and lived experiences.

*They wrap around each other
And become one. Se unen.*

*Multidimensional, dynamic, evolving,
El ADN ubicada in mi alma*

Bilingual DNA.
